

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

The lives of those who are going on in the Lord are not a series of random events; they are a series of planned events that are part of God's plan to achieve His purpose of the eons through His Son, our Lord Jesus. By going on in the Lord, I mean that we not only believe on Jesus but we also trust Him, knowing Him as our trust; we obey Him; and we cling to Him no matter what is going on in our lives or around us. Simply, we press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus (Philippians 3.14 NASB), which speaks of the out-resurrection and transfiguration that will make one fit to reign with Christ as a son of God in the coming kingdom of our Lord. The upward call is not about leaving this earth and going to heaven, as so many are taught. It is about becoming like our Lord, to be in His image with a glorified, celestial, spiritual, immortal, body. Our heaven is a celestial body.

The journey to attain this prize is not always an easy path. The fact of the matter is that it more often than not is a difficult one. Paul reminds us that it is through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God (Acts 14.22 NASB). Peter encouraged the brethren to not be surprised at the fiery ordeal among you, which comes upon you for your testing, as though some strange thing were happening to you; but to the degree that you share the suffering of Christ, keep on rejoicing, so that at the revelation of His glory you may rejoice with exaltation (1 Peter 4.12-13 NASB). John testified that he was a fellow partaker in the tribulation and kingdom and perseverance in Jesus (Revelation 1.9 NASB). Many people are looking for a tribulation to come upon the world to close out this eon (age), but we need to realize that the ecclesia has been in tribulation in varying degrees for the last 2,000 years. John testified that he was in it, and that was nearly two millennia ago. Further, we are witnessing the fall of mystery Babylon, and this is a tribulation to the entire world that has been yoked to this beast system.

My wife and I can testify to the trials that ones face when they have set their hearts on the appearing of the Lord and His kingdom. During July 1995, the Lord gave us a word and miraculously confirmed it the same day. The word was launch out into the deep. It was as if the Lord said: "Get in the boat with Me and let us launch out into the depths of My life, leaving the things of the world behind." We can testify that from that point on, we truly have been launched out with the Lord. At times, we have felt that we were all alone in a boat out in the middle of the ocean, not able to see the land; however, we have known that the Lord has been in the boat with us. He will never leave us nor forsake us.

We have written of how the Lord broke into our lives (grace through His faith) in 1981 and has led us to the year 2007. The book is called Launch Out Into The Deep; however, it is available only on request. In many respects, our story is no different from the story of anyone else that is going on in the Lord. The details may vary and the methods the Lord uses along the way may vary, but in the final analysis, it is the Lord's doing; it is His story in all our lives. It is for His glory!

I share these things as an introduction to this article in order to stress the point that the Lord has revealed His heart to me in many ways over the last 27 years. If you are interested, then request our book. It may give you better insight into why I would take such a risk in what follows.

So, what I am about to share comes from many years of waiting on the Lord and seeking to know His heart and His mind. Some of the following material has appeared in issues of The Upward Call, but I have attempted to put it all together to highlight one coherent theme.

What follows is a very important and serious subject as we near the end of our present wicked eon, as Paul called it. In a way, I am taking a big risk or a huge step in even touching upon this topic, for much of what is presented could be placed in the category of the subjective, as opposed to objective truth. After all, many have prophesied only to be embarrassed when what they said was coming did not materialize according to their timeframe. So, please keep this in mind as you read on.

At the outset, there are seven points that I must make clear.

First, mystery Babylon must fall in order for the kingdom of our Lord to take root among the nations, and it will fall. It is a mystery because few people realize that we all have been yoked to worldwide systems that are counterfeits to the way the kingdom of God operates. Although I focus quite a bit on the financial banking aspect of mystery Babylon, which is a beast as described in Revelation 18, it is, nevertheless, only one part of many worldwide systems that encompass every aspect of life in our world today, including political and religious systems or isms. The fact is this: Everything associated with mystery Babylon will be shaken and will fall in order to make way for the Day of Christ.

Simply, mystery Babylon and the kingdom of our Lord cannot and will not coexist; the counterfeit must be removed, just like the tares must be removed from the kingdom (Matthew 13). So, as you read the following material, please keep this one fact in mind. Whether speaking of financial systems, political systems, religious systems, or any other systems, if they are not of God's kingdom, which I can assure you that all in the world today that man has created and rules over is not, then they fall short of the glory of God and they must be replaced by the kingdom of Christ.

The shaking of our day is a shaking of mystery Babylon that will eventually lead to its fall in one day and in one hour (Revelation 18.10, 17). It must be shaken to dust as the Stone Kingdom hits the feet mixed with clay and iron and brings the whole statue down, crushes it to become like chaff from the summer threshing floor, and blows it away in the wind so that no trace of it is found. The statue revealed to Nebuchadnezzar represents all the kingdoms of the world throughout history and represents the final downfall of Babylon, the kingdom that rules the world at the very end of our age. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth (see Daniel 2.31-35). The stone speaks of Christ and the great mountain speaks of His kingdom, the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ (Revelation 11.15).

For more information on the above subject, please read Article #9, A Mystery, the Great City Babylon, May 2008, and The Upward Call issues dealing with Babylon: #02-0875 (July 31, 2008); #02-0876 (August 14, 2008); #02-0877 (August 22, 2008); #02-08121 (September 25, 2008); and issues dealing with the Stone Kingdom: #02-0884 (May 9, 2008); #02-0885 (May 13, 2008); #02-0886 (May 19, 2008).

Second, the militant (by the physical sword) church of the Pentecostal era has read Scripture, especially John's Revelation, and has generally seen God as a vengeful god in the image of man who has purposed to destroy and annihilate most of mankind and the nations and to bring great destruction to the earth itself.

For more understanding of this subject, please read The Upward Call, issues #02-08142 (November 24, 2008) through #02-08145 (December 2, 2008) in which I deal with God, Country, Guns, and War.

Rather than taking up the spiritual sword of the spirit, the militant church has taken up the physical sword and, in turn, has read Scripture with this in hand (or in mind).

Paul told the Corinthians, who were acting and thinking more like infants or the natural man, that they needed to discern spiritual to spiritual (1 Corinthians 2.13). When we see things in this light, we come to understand that all judgments of God are for the purpose of restoration and not destruction. Think about this: The word says that the Son of God will inherit the earth (Psalm 2.8), and that the meek or gentle shall also inherit the earth (Matthew 5.5), which refers to the sons of God, the sons of glory, or the sons of the first resurrection (Luke 20.36; Hebrews 2.10; Revelation 20.4-6). Do you honestly think that God is going to bring the earth and the nations of the earth to near physical extinction before the reign of the heavens comes to the earth? If He does, then what will be left to inherit; a scorched earth of rubble and ashes and dead bodies with blood rising up to the bridles of horses?

However, if we see things spiritual to spiritual, we begin to understand that many of the things that will occur in the days ahead will be manifested not so much in physically destructive ways but in ways that remove evil and bring about good. For example, many people are looking for a literal nuclear war to bring the US to its knees. However, events could occur on the magnitude of nuclear, that is, colossal in its effect or impact, without a single bomb being dropped. Surely, the political system of the US going from corruption or unrighteousness to righteousness would be nuclear in its impact on the nation and the world. What I am trying to stress is that God's judgments may come in a fashion entirely unexpected by the militant church. We need spiritual sight.

Third, leading up to September 2008, the Lord spoke many words to me indicating that tumult and a great storm was coming. I have written about these words in The Upward Call, in particular, issues #02-0890 (July 10, 2008); #02-0891 through #02-0894 (July 24, 2008); #02-08126 (October 8, 2008); #02-08127 (October 8, 2008). It is now a known fact that tumult and a great storm has come and swept across the globe. I share this to add some validity to what follows.

Fourth, some people, especially ones who do not see the coming of the kingdom of Christ as a possibility in our day, might consider what I report as too negative and bordering on doomsday. Let me assure you that it is nothing of the sort. All that I have to report, even the seemingly bad things, are good things. I cannot think of anything better and more exciting than the arrival of the kingdom of our Lord. But most of all, for those of us who long to see the love of our life, our Lord Jesus, there is nothing greater than seeing Him face to face.

Fifth, the Lord seems to speak to me most clearly in the middle of the night as He wakes me with a word. More times than not I am also directed to look at the clock to note the time the word was spoken. The numbers associated with the time could refer to a specific Scripture verse, a date, or the number itself, since numbers have meaning in the plan of God. As I see it, God is the mathematical Genius of the universe and He speaks to us through numbers. In fact, some have proven that the entire Bible is a mathematical formula based on the number 7, which refers to completeness or spiritual perfection.

The same principle applies to words and dreams. If the word or dream that comes in the night is vivid and I recall it with clarity in the morning, it is usually an indication to me that it is of the Lord. So, I pay very close attention to what occurs in the night. I must also state that 2008 has been the most active year of my life in this regard. I do not think this is a coincidence, considering how close we are to the end of the present eon (age). After all, two millennia ago, Peter quoted Joel that old men would have dreams (Acts 2.14-21; Joel 2.28-32). I do not consider myself an old man, but I guess it is all relative; in comparison to one of 20 years, I am old; in comparison to one of 80 years, I am young. It matters not! What matters to me is that we are approaching the end of this age; the kingdom of our Lord is coming into sharper focus; soon it will be manifested among the nations of the world; soon we will see the love of our life; and I am having prophetic dreams and receiving prophetic words from the Lord in relation to the coming of His kingdom.

Sixth, I do not hear or see things every day. There have been periods when I felt like I was in the wilderness all alone when heaven was silent. Personally, I do not like these times but have come to learn that they are necessary as part of the training to know what is of the Lord and what is not. Even then, there are times when I later realized that what I heard perhaps was not of the Lord.

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

Seventh, I am open to correction and adjustment. Sometimes the Lord very clearly gives us a word or a vision or a dream, but it may not be the complete picture but rather only a piece of a bigger puzzle. Consequently, we can prematurely apply it or misinterpret it if we are not careful.

I do not share these things to sort of hedge a bet against what follows. I share it to be practical and honest in the matter. It is a serious thing to speak for the Lord, and I want it stressed that I, like all, am prone to error, even deception. May the Lord have mercy!

The Day.

Over the years, especially the last eight years, it seems that what the Lord has spoken to my heart in dreams, visions, or simply His words spoken in a quiet and yet distinct tone has had a general theme woven through it, and that thread is the coming of His kingdom, which, based on what He has spoken into my heart, is called the Day, even that Day (2 Timothy 4.8). Paul called it the day of our Lord Jesus Christ (1 Corinthians 1.8) or the day of Christ (Philippians 1.10). Since Jesus broke into my life, I have longed for His appearing and kingdom; however, this longing has intensified in recent years. Simply, I long for the day and I encourage others through my writings to do likewise.

We must press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

On July 4, 2002, I heard: “When the Day comes, you will know it.” I have no doubt what day this is. It is the day of Christ. But what did the Lord mean when He spoke this to my heart? Does this refer to the precise day, as in day and hour, or is it a season, that is, a period of time, like the expressions the hour or the times? Or, is the Lord simply encouraging me that I will not be left out of His day, that is, I will experience the day of Christ; when it comes, there will be no doubt that it has arrived? If this is how I am to take this word, then it would seem that I will have some indication that the day is upon us. Before offering some further thoughts on this matter, I need to share a few more words that came to me.

On July 6, 2002, I heard: “When all the waters are overflowing, I will come.” This last word is in reference to Joshua and the Israelites crossing the Jordan when the waters stood up at the city of Adam (Joshua 3.16), which speaks of sin and death that has a grip on mankind. Jesus, our Joshua, is coming, not in reference to sin but in reference to life, and He will do this by raising up His firstfruit anointed, the conquerors, the sons of glory, the ones destined to reign with Him. This speaks of the first resurrection and transfiguration, the glorious event that leads to His kingdom or what could be called the Tabernacles Age.

More recently, on July 15, 2008, I was in my garage getting ready to do some painting, and as I was prepping the work, I asked the Holy Spirit to give me a song to sing as I worked. But instead of a song, at that moment, I heard the quiet yet distinct voice: “Shall we reveal the secret to him?” I felt like Abraham in Genesis 18.17, when the Lord appeared to him right before He destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. In retrospect, I can state that I had this strange feeling that the Lord was standing in my garage that day.

Does the secret pertain to the Day and what precedes it? Time will tell; but if what I have been hearing of late is from the Lord, then I must report that perhaps I have been given some indication of the time on God’s prophetic clock.

Specifically, I must report that the year 2010 may be a critical year in relation to the Day. I realize that some are stating the same thing, and yet others are looking beyond this period to the year 2012 and others to the period of 2014-2015. At this point, I have no indication of events or even of the Day occurring in these years, but I do have some indication that the year 2010 may hold an important key, if not the key. At any rate, I do believe that the next two years (2009-2010) are going to be very interesting years.

I realize the danger of being emphatic about prophetic dates, especially the day in which our Lord will come, so I merely offer what has been given to me and leave it to you, the reader, to draw your own conclusions. All I can do is report on what I have seen and heard.

Wednesday, September 8.

To begin, let me recount a dream that came to me over five years ago, on June 26, 2003. By the way, the number 26 refers to the good news of Christ.

I was singing the song “Silent Night,” which is about the Lord’s birth. The words that struck me and that I kept repeating were “holy night, all is calm.” While I slept, I sensed the second coming of our Lord and that it was going to be a calm night.

Then I saw a paper like an affidavit slowly move across my vision as if on a movie screen. I saw the date “September 8” scroll across the screen. There was no year attached to it. Then I saw the word “Wednesday” scroll across the screen.

I had the impression that on Wednesday, September 8 of some year, the Lord will reveal Himself to His people. It would be at night and it would be calm. Of course, night could signify spiritual darkness and calm could signify that the world is comfortable with this darkness. But I did not know the year.

In the second part of the dream, I saw myself with a group of people, including two brothers in Christ that I know. As we prayed, in a vision, I saw the Lord coming and I told the others. Then we looked behind us and there were people prostrate on the floor. I was given the impression that they were not saved and were drawn to where we were. These people were in the shadows of this place, and we were to lead them to the Lord and disciple them. They were drawn by the spirit of God and wanted to hear.

When I awoke that morning, I looked at a calendar and discovered that the next time September 8 fell on a Wednesday was the following year in 2004.

Nothing discernable happened the next year on Wednesday, September 8, 2004.

Interestingly, a brother in Christ and good friend calculated the day in which the 6,000 years of man's day (six days of 1,000-year days) would end, and he arrived at the date of September 8, 2004. If his figures are correct, this is when our present age was closed out, and we are now in a transition period waiting for the arrival of the King and His kingdom. The Lord is my witness that for some time after the dream and even after September 8, 2004, I could not remember this particular date, which is not unusual, for numbers are not things that are intuitive to me. Needless to say, mathematics is not one of my strengths.

Once this date passed, I looked at the calendar once again and inadvertently logged in my mind that it would not reappear on a Wednesday until the year 2011. A few years later, I realized that I had made a mistake, for it was 2010.

By itself, this dream is open to misinterpretation or even deception. But when I add this to other things the Lord has revealed to me, especially from 2007-2008, it seems that the secret or the pieces of the puzzle are coming together in some measure. Let me put it this way; things related to God's prophetic clock don't seem as fuzzy as they once were.

Washington, DC, 1800, 210-year cycle.

If I were alone in this matter I would have some doubt, but on July 23, 2008, I read something written by a brother in Christ that fell in line with what I saw five years prior. This brother does a lot of great work in researching prophetic time-cycles according to Scripture and history. He has seen that Jacob's trouble consisted of 21-year cycles that, when applied nationally, become 210-year cycles. Jacob had two times of distress, each of which lasted 21 years. In like fashion, Israel had times of distress that lasted 210 years. 2,520 years is another time cycle that runs throughout history. I won't try to explain how he arrived at all of this, but he saw that 2,520 years after the fall of Israel's capital city in Samaria is the year 1800, which is when the United States' capital in Washington, DC was completed. By adding the 210-year cycle of distress to 1800, we discover it brings us to the year 2010. In other words, the US has been in a time of distress since 1800. During this time, our nation has engaged in eleven wars, including one that almost split us apart and two of which are still with us. We have not had a history of uninterrupted peace.

He recently concluded that the year 2010 is a very important year in that it may have something to do with "Washington DC and perhaps our entire political apparatus.” As I write this, I am caught by this conclusion in light of a dream that I had early in 2008 regarding the corrupt political system of the US and the American people being cut from its cord of falsehood. I will share on this later.

As I read his conclusion, I was thrown off course at first, for he also stated that the Hebrew year of 2010 actually begins in September 2009 and ends in September 2010 and that he expected something to occur possibly during September 2009. This started me thinking and searching, which led to a startling fact; at least it was to me.

September 8, 2010 is the last day of the Hebrew year of 2010.

September 9 begins the fall feasts, starting with the Feast of Trumpets or Rosh Hashanah.

When I saw this, I let out a yell. Is this a coincidence or is this the hand of the God of the heavens who reveals secrets? So that you do not lose the significance of this, the following chart shows the fall feast dates from 2008-2010.

Year	Feast of Trumpets	Day of Atonement	Feast of Tabernacles	Last Great Day 8 th Day
2008	Sept 30	Oct 9	Oct 14-20	Oct 21
2009	Sept 19	Sept 28	Oct 3-9	Oct 10
2010	Sept 9	Sept 18	Sept 23-29	Sept 30

To ensure that you fully understand the chart, you need to know one other vital fact: The combination of September 8th falling on a Wednesday and the fall feasts starting on the following day of the 9th does not occur again in our lifetime.

I traced it out many years past my life span and I never discovered this line-up for these dates and Wednesday. Simply, this is a unique line-up. We will never see this occur again. This alone might give us an indication that this is the hand of God.

Also, it is interesting that two years from the 2008 Feast of Trumpets (9/30) is the last great day or the eighth day of the 2010 Feast of Tabernacles (9/30), the day in which the full anointing comes to those who will reign in the kingdom of our Lord. By the way, the number 30 signifies dedication and spiritual maturity.

Could it be that this chart holds the key to the first resurrection and the coming of the kingdom of our Lord? Could it be that the very last day of the Hebrew year of 2010 leads to the kingdom of our Lord in the Hebrew year of 2011?

Jesus' birth.

With September 30th in mind, I want to propose another thought that may seem off the wall, so to speak. I have read several sources that have researched the probable date of Jesus' birth and they claim He was born on the Feast of Trumpets on September 29th. Obviously, this is one day before the 30th; but, needless to say, it is very close, given no one can be absolutely sure (no doubt whatsoever) that it was on this specific numeric day. I think the evidence is pretty compelling that He was born on the Feast of Trumpets, but pinning it down to one day or another may be a bit more of a challenge.

As shown in the above chart, the Feast of Trumpets occurred on September 30, 2008, and then exactly two years later, the last great day of tabernacles will fall on September 30, 2010. In other words, September 30th appears as two bookends of the fall feasts that cover a two-year period.

Now, hold this thought and read the following passage from Hosea.

¹ “Come, let us return to the LORD. For He has torn us, but He will heal us; He has wounded us, but He will bandage us. ² He will revive us after two days; He will raise us up on the third day, that we may live before Him. ³ So let us know, let us press on to know the LORD. His going forth is as certain as the dawn; and He will come to us like the rain, like the spring rain watering the earth.”
(Hosea 6.1-3 NASB)

I have held for several years that Hosea's two days prophetically speak of the 2,000-year period from the first advent to the second advent of Christ, with the third day being likened to the seventh day of the millennial kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ. The Lord will come to bring healing to His people, which could refer to the first resurrection in which corruption is put off and incorruption put on. Also, the expression coming to us like the rain could refer to the eighth day of tabernacles, the last day, the great day of the feast, in which the Holy Spirit will flow like rivers of living water from the innermost being of the conquering saints (John 7.37-38). At this point, the kingdom of Christ will truly begin to take root among the nations as the conquerors go forth as a kingdom and priests. The conquerors can be described by many other titles or names (i.e., firstfruit anointed, wife, 144,000). One such expression for the conquerors is the male (man) child, that is, the ones counted worthy of the age to come are a male child, the body of Christ, that will rule and reign with the Head of the body (Revelation 2.26-27; 12.5; 14.1-5).

Now, this is what I propose that may be a bit off the wall. The September 30, 2008 Feast of Trumpets was the beginning of the birth of the male child that will progress for the next two years until the full-grown child that is ready to rule and reign with Christ will emerge and the kingdom of God will come to this earth. Obviously, I have taken Hosea's two days as a special application of two years instead of 2,000 years. What I mean by the beginning of the birth of the male child is this: Over the next two years, the Lord is calling forth His company of conquerors that will be alive and remain when He comes. The full complement of conquerors will not come forth until the Feast of Trumpets on September 9, 2010. Then, on September 30, 2010, the Lord's kingdom of priests will be readied to establish His kingdom on earth as well as in the heavens.

Just a thought!

Discerning and knowing the times.

I realize that some will immediately throw up the red flag and yell foul. After all, Jesus stated that "no one can know the day." I must confess that I have struggled with this word and have even repented that I would even entertain the suggestion of possibly knowing the date. So, I will tread cautiously. But, did He mean this as an absolute, or has it been interpreted as an absolute?

"But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father alone. For the coming of the Son of Man will be just like the days of Noah." (Matthew 24.36-37 NASB)

"Therefore be on the alert, for you do not know which day your Lord is coming." (Matthew 24.42 NASB)

Do you see anything in Jesus' words that states the Father will never reveal the day or the hour to His Son or to any whom He chooses? Daniel declared that there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries (Daniel 2.28), and He revealed some mighty powerful end-time mysteries to Daniel. Paul spoke of the mysteries of God and of Christ, which were revealed to him. Tremendous mysteries were revealed to John, while in spirit. Consider what Amos has to say about God revealing secrets.

Surely the Lord GOD does nothing unless He reveals His secret counsel To His servants the prophets. (Amos 3.7 NASB)

Lastly, Jesus scolded the Pharisees and the Sadducees for their ignorance of the times.

"And in the morning, 'There will be a storm today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Do you know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but cannot discern the signs of the times?" (Matthew 16.3 NASB)

Some might argue that knowing or discerning the times is not quite the same as knowing the day and the hour. This is true; but again, does the word tell us that the Father will never reveal this secret to anyone, including His own Son, who, just in case you missed the point, is the exact image of God the Father? The Son of Man might not have known the day; but does the Son of God not know it?

I believe that when the Lord spoke those words to His disciples, it was true. It was not for them to know times or epochs which the Father has fixed by His own authority (Acts 1.7). They were not to know for reasons that were obvious and necessary in that day. But does the same rule apply today? Perhaps not, for I believe the Father delights in revealing His secrets to those who diligently seek Him and search for answers. Besides, didn't Paul tell the Thessalonians that they had no need to have anything written to them regarding the times and the epochs (1 Thessalonians 5.1)? Of course, this does not mean they knew the precise day or hour, but, most likely, they knew that the times and epochs were related to the feasts given through Moses to the sons of Israel.

In other words, the Lord is going to come to establish His kingdom on earth in some unknown year during the fall feasts. As believers, we should understand this, and in fact, there are many who do and each year look to the fall feasts, hoping that the Lord will come. The point is that, according to Scripture, there is nothing nebulous about the events surrounding the Lord's coming for His called and chosen ones. They are definite and sure. What is unknown is the year in which this glorious event will occur.

Imminency of His return.

The teaching of the imminent return of Christ has done much to bolster the concept of no one ever knowing the day or even the times. This teaching says that, after Calvary, there were no prophecies to be fulfilled before Christ comes for His ecclesia (church) in what many call the rapture, which I believe is viewed incorrectly by many. I do not want to get sidetracked on the rapture, so I refer you to my Article #17, January 2009, Snatched Away [The Rapture], in which I also touch upon the fall feasts.

It is apparent that many Christians have been taught that Christ could come any day, for His coming is not based on any prophetic event, or anything else for that matter. He could have come 2,000 years ago, or He could come 2,000 years from now. According to this teaching, the trumpet of God will sound (whenever) and the entire church will be taken out of the earth to heaven as God begins to destroy the earth for the next seven years. I once held this view but have since repented of it, for it is error.

It is error because it completely ignores the fall feasts given to Israel, as if they do not apply to the ecclesia of God, which is the true spiritual Israel. Just for the sake of clarity, the spring feasts were fulfilled to the letter and to the day, and part of this fulfillment pertains to the ecclesia experiencing Pentecost. Then how is it that so many do not see that the ecclesia must also experience tabernacles in order to enter the kingdom of our Lord and to reign with Him?

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

Besides, the imminent return of Christ completely ignores the fact that after six days, that is, six 1000-year days, comes the seventh day of the millennial kingdom of Christ. Since there were about 4,000 years from Adam to Christ, and there have been about 2,000 years since Calvary, we cannot have much time left on God's clock. This fact alone should cause us to be alert to the time and not ignore any signs that might come our way. How could Christ have come prior to the completion of 2,000 years? He couldn't have come; therefore, His arrival is based on something other than pure imminency. Time alone has delayed Him from coming. Why? Because the Father has fixed the time!

If you are interested in learning more about the six days of man and the seventh day of Christ, I refer you to my book The Purpose and Plan of the Eons, Volume 1, Chapter 2, After Six Days...On The Seventh Day.

Prophetically speaking, we are waiting for a year in which the first resurrection and the glorification and manifestation of the sons of God will be fulfilled during the fall feasts of trumpets and tabernacles. This is when the kingdom of our Lord begins to take root among some of the nations and will steadily increase and expand to most of the nations on earth over the next 1,000 years. The increase will come as the immortal conquerors of Christ reign over the nations and teach them righteousness and exemplify the very life and love of Christ in their lives as they minister to the rest of mortal mankind. Obviously, there is much in this that needs further explanation, but this is beyond the scope of this article.

The point that I want to stress is that Jesus will not appear to the world at the time of the first resurrection, and once this great event occurs, those who have been taught properly will know that the kingdom of our Lord is coming 22 days later on the last great day or the eighth day of the Feast of Tabernacles. Those who are destined for immortality will see the Lord before this.

In studying this subject, it does seem that no one will know the exact day and the exact hour of meeting the Lord, but once the resurrection takes place, those with discernment will have a pretty good idea, at least within a window of opportunity, so to speak. The Lord could come to meet His people at the beginning, mid-point, or last day of tabernacles. Besides, according to the parable of the ten virgins, we know that a shout will go forth to come out and meet Him, obviously followed by a short delay (Matthew 25.6).

Actually, if He hasn't come by the last great day, then all those who are looking for Him will know that this is the day. So, you can see that we could have a pretty good idea of when this will all occur without knowing precisely the time. Consequently, the Lord's words about the hour hold true.

Unfortunately, the many preachers who had taught the rapture as the great escape will be befuddled as they see things unfolding so differently, which, by the way, will lead to the Day of Atonement, a day of repentance.

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

So, why does it seem strange that the Lord would tell me that when the Day comes, I will know it, when anyone with any understanding of the times will know the first resurrection has come when it does come? Actually, the day could be the 22 days of the fall feasts. After all, Paul will be raised from among the dead on day 1.

The real question is whether God will reveal the secret of what year the first resurrection will occur. The Lord never said that the year would be unknown. I realize that some might counter this by saying that within the day and the hour is the year.

Well, I will leave this point with you, the reader, to discern. All I know is what I believe the Lord has spoken to me over a long period of time: He is the God of heaven who reveals mysteries or secrets; He reveals His secret counsel to His servants; and when the Day comes, I will know it. There will be no guessing or doubting as to the Day when it arrives. It will be as clear as crystal.

Now, let us move on to some other things that I believe the Lord has revealed to me. What follows does not necessarily speak directly to the Day and the year 2010; however, it speaks to the time leading up to the Day and gives us further indication that it is very near.

To know the Day, it goes without saying that we must discern the time leading up to the Day. Many are doing this as they see events occurring in the world that indicate where we are on the prophetic clock. However, even this discernment is distorted, for many who hold to the common view of rapture and the imminency of Christ's arrival also see most prophetic events as manifesting on the other side of the rapture after the "church" escapes earth. I do not hold to this view.

To understand the times and the time preceding the Day, it is paramount to have a proper understanding of how things will work out as the age closes out. In particular, we need to see that the entire world is presently yoked to mystery Babylon, the financial beast system as described in Revelation 18 and that we see falling in our day. I have stated that Babylon is much more than a worldwide financial system; however, it seems quite apparent that what will bring down mystery Babylon will be the collapse of this particular system. Besides, it is quite obvious that all attention is focused on this particular system in our present day.

Again, for more understanding of mystery Babylon, I refer you to my Article #9, A Mystery, The Great City Babylon, May 2008, and several issues of The Upward Call that deal with this topic. If you have not read these, I would encourage you to do so, along with this article. I will not give a lot of detail on this subject in what follows.

The Federal Reserve System and Mystery Babylon.

However, it might help to understand that for the US, the seed for the beast system of Revelation 18 was planted in 1910 at Jekyll Island, Georgia when some very influential financiers/bankers secretly met to discuss how to institute a central bank to seize control over the monetary system of the US and join it with the monetary system of the world, particularly the European banking house of Rothschild. This seed took root and was watered in 1913 when President Woodrow Wilson signed the Federal Reserve Act and in 1914 it came to life. Since then, the US has experienced periods of bad economies as a direct result of the power and control of this system over the American economy.

Today, the Federal Reserve System is part of the worldwide financial banking system that has placed all nations under its yoke. Again, it is part of mystery Babylon. It is a mystery because those yoked to it are in bondage to its power and do not know it. According to Scripture, Babylon must fall and it will fall in one day and in one hour. We are in the midst of its fall in this day.

So, do not be persuaded if things begin to look better or people are saying the worst is behind us, for it is not. Or, even if most believe that President Obama will solve the crisis. As I write this, the banking industry continues in its crisis as it asks for more government help. The system must fall to give way to the kingdom of our Lord. This is good news.

Now, as I share more of what I believe the Lord has revealed to me, it is vital to keep this mystery in view. We must see the true nature of the system to which we all have been yoked and realize it must fall. This is one of the keys to understanding what I have shared about the Day.

Jericho walk around "Colony."

Interestingly, in light of mystery Babylon, I was led to act out its fall.

From July 10-16, 2007, I was led to do a Jericho march around a sign with the name Colony on it. The sign was in front of an office building that had been vacated by the company (Colony) that had previously set up shop there. So my wife and I silently walked once around this sign for six days, and on the seventh day, we walked around it seven times. After the seventh time, I yelled out that mystery Babylon had fallen. It was probably a good thing that it was early in the day and no one was around.

I picked this particular sign because the US celebrated the 400th anniversary of the first colony to be established in America in Virginia. I felt led to walk because I began to see that the US is yoked to mystery Babylon that has engulfed the entire world, and it has to fall to release us from its bondage. Again, this is a good thing. At this point in time, the financial crisis was beginning to come into focus, although it had been brewing all year.

At first, it might seem to be a silly thing to do, but is it? I imagine it appeared foolish as Joshua and company walked around Jericho. But they did it out of obedience to the Lord. I believe we were being obedient to the Lord by acting out something that has been set in motion in the heavenlies that is now being manifested on earth and will continue until it falls in one hour. We are not alone, for there are others that have been led to act out prophetic events that have not been manifested fully on earth.

When the US Stock Market began to fall dramatically, especially as September 2008 approached and paper wealth began to grow wings and fly away, I began to cry out to the Lord to know what we were to do. It would make sense that after doing a Jericho walk and expecting the financial system to one day fall, I would have done something to protect our investments. But we have endeavored to do only what we believe the Lord leads us to do, even if it means waiting on Him through strange times. Thus, I kept calling on the Lord, but I was never clear what to do. Maybe I was blinded. At any rate, I believe this was the Lord's doing, for He wanted to teach me and, frankly, to test and discipline me.

On September 12, 2008, I had to make a decision about cashing out of Lehman Brothers. My financial advisor recommended that I hold tight and take no action, for the company was going to be bought out that weekend. Trust no man; trust God! Well, it did not happen, and by Monday morning, they were bankrupt, and we had lost our entire investment in Lehman, the one company that the US government decided not to bail out. I felt like a complete failure when it comes to investing. However, for some time, I had sensed that the day would come when the Lord would test my heart over what truly had been our security and had become an idol to me. Often I told my wife that it was coming. The question arose as to whether our security was the Lord or an investment portfolio.

Interestingly, the name Lehman means "tenant or renter." I am reminded of the Lord's word: "The land is Mine!" Perhaps the Lord has given us a message in the collapse of Lehman. Babylon thinks that it owns the world, but God's Son has purchased the whole field and possesses the very ends of the earth (Psalm 2.8; Matthew 13.38). Many experts state that the fall of Lehman started the banking crisis. If so, September 14, 2008 marks a turning point as the Lord began to exercise His rightful ownership over the earth that will lead to the downfall of mystery Babylon.

In spite of my failure, the Lord spoke to me on September 15, 2008: "My peace I give to you. Stand fast! I am Your strength." On this same day, the Lord gave me interpretation of a dream about a key and a dirty cord that I had on February 28, 2008 that greatly puzzled me over the next seven months. I'll share on this later.

Over the next few days the Stock Market continued its slide, and I kept crying out to the Lord what to do. I received no answer, so I waited as I watched our investments slide down a slippery slope as the market went down hundreds of points each day. Some Christians probably would think I was stupid because we live off these investments. At this point, we had lost quite a bit of our original investment.

Keep in mind that all this occurred 14 months (July 16, 2007) after our Jericho walk. The number 14 signifies “deliverance and salvation.” Deliverance was coming!

Habakkuk’s words seemed to resonate in my heart at this point.

⁶ “Will not all of these take up a taunt-song against him, even mockery and insinuations against him and say, ‘Woe to him who increases what is not his—for how long—and makes himself rich with loans?’ ⁷ “Will not your creditors rise up suddenly, and those who collect from you awaken? Indeed, you will become plunder for them.” (Habakkuk 2.6-7 NASB)

¹⁶ I heard and my inward parts trembled, at the sound my lips quivered. Decay enters my bones, and in my place I tremble. Because I must wait quietly for the day of distress, for the people to arise who will invade us. ¹⁷ Though the fig tree should not blossom and there be no fruit on the vines, though the yield of the olive should fail and the fields produce no food, though the flock should be cut off from the fold and there be no cattle in the stalls, ¹⁸ yet I will exult in the LORD, I will rejoice in the God of my salvation. ¹⁹ The Lord GOD is my strength, and He has made my feet like hinds’ feet, and makes me walk on my high places. (Habakkuk 3.16-19 NASB)

Though disaster was upon us, yet I will exult in the Lord.

Finally, on September 17, 2008, I cried out to the Lord and repented for being part of a ghoulish and beastly system, which is exactly what I called it that day, and the need to come out of it. As I prayed this, I heard the still, quiet voice speak to my heart: “This is what I have been waiting for.” Repentance; a change of ways!

The following day, we cashed out of the market. Jeannette was at peace, but I still had my doubts and continued to struggle. I was strongly yoked to this beast system. But then I heard: “In one hour! Come out of the boat to the Lord.” We had been launched out into the deep with the Lord back in 1995, but now the call was to come out of the boat to walk on the water with the Lord. I understand what Peter went through when he stepped out of the boat. I reacted much like Peter as I looked at the great waves around me. Would I survive the days ahead? But the Lord reminded me that in one hour, it will fall, and then all will come into sharp focus as the kingdom of our Lord begins to take root among the nations.

Today, we both feel that we have closed the book on being launched out in the boat. Now, we are out of the boat and walking with the Lord on the rough seas. Perhaps, our next book will be titled Out of the Boat.

On September 19, 2008, I began to struggle over the whole matter, asking the Lord why we had to go through this. My heart was filled with uncertainty and doubt as to whether I had made the right move and, frankly, whether I had even heard from the Lord. At one point, I cried out: "Lord, all the money we lost even in the last few days would have been enough to live on for a whole year. Why didn't I do something sooner?" Then I heard that almost audible voice: "You don't need another year!" Wow!

What does this mean? It could mean that He left us enough to live on until the end of the age. Or, it could mean that, within a year, everything will change so dramatically that it will be a moot point. We will have to wait and see. But I am watching 2009 very carefully.

Before moving on, I have two other thoughts.

First, I thought Colony was the name of a bank, but later discovered that it was the name of an insurance company. This puzzled me until AIG, the largest insurance company in the world at the time, began to fail and the government had to pump billions of dollars into it (at last count $159 billion). Later, insurance companies that were in financial difficulties petitioned the government to become banks so that they too could get their hands on government bailout money. So, Colony was appropriate, given how insurance companies have been included in the financial crisis.

Second, the US Stock Market and the Federal Reserve System are distinct and separate entities that make up the beast system. I have not tried to distinguish the two; but, technically speaking, they are separate and operate differently. Yet, they are part of the whole and fuel the greed and the love of money that is characteristic of mystery Babylon. In some ways, we can come out of the Stock Market, but it is nearly impossible to come out of the yoke of the financial banking system that is represented by the Federal Reserve, since it controls our economy and the distribution of money that is legal tender (debt notes) of the US government.

Now, let us consider a dream that indicates the sinking of the worldwide beast system.

The Titanic sinking and 1917.

On March 11, 2008, I had a two-part dream.

I saw the Titanic (in color) with its characteristic smoke stacks. The bow was up in the air as if it were sinking. Then I saw the year 1917 and then the month of May.

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

Frankly, I was puzzled by it. The Titanic was called by some to be a nearly-invincible ship (not quite unsinkable but formidable) and was built to be part of a fleet of the largest and most luxurious ships on the sea. However, on April 14, 1912, at 11.40 pm, it struck what is called a blackberg, an iceberg that looks black in the night just like black ice, and sank shortly after on April 15. In other words, they could not see it coming. When they did see it, rather than speed up the ship and steer clear of it, the captain reversed engines and plowed into it (actually scraped along it). Some say that the Titanic had the speed to actually change course to avoid the iceberg if the captain had taken this action. Perhaps there is a lesson in this for the current financial crisis. We need to change course, not try to slow down to avoid the collision and subsequent sinking.

As I did research on the ship, I discovered something very interesting that I believe is the clue to why I was given this dream. The owner of the ship was JP Morgan, the American railroad tycoon who was one of the wealthiest men of his time. In fact, he is attributed with having saved or rescued the national economy, in general, and the federal government, in particular, on two separate occasions. Further, he built one of the most powerful banking houses in the world. JP Morgan's company played a major role in bringing about the Federal Reserve System, and it became financially connected with the Federal Reserve Bank. Today, JP Morgan's name is still in financial news (i.e., JP Morgan Chase, Morgan Stanley).

So, there is a clear connection between the sinking of the Titanic and the rise of the beast system as manifested in the US through the Federal Reserve.

This is how I see it: The Titanic, a nearly-invincible, luxury ship, sinking into the sea refers to the financial/economic system, a nearly-invincible system of great wealth (luxury), sinking among the nations. In Scripture, the sea often represents the nations. What connects the Titanic to the financial system and luxury or wealth of the nations is its owner, the wealthy financier JP Morgan, whose company was instrumental in yoking the US economy to the Federal Reserve System, starting in 1914. The Titanic sank, and in two years, the US was yoked to a system that will eventually bring it to its knees. Watch the next two years! [i.e., 2009-2010] The fact that this dream was given in 2008 on the 11th of March and 6 months later the world began to witness the crumbling of this system 7 years from September 11, 2001 is no coincidence. The number 7 signifies completion, and the number 6 is the number of man and signifies man's wisdom and labor, which will come up short of the mark or glory of God. This you can take, so to speak, to the bank as well.

Before moving on, there are four points I need to add.

First, the smoke stacks of the Titanic were yellow, but in the dream, I saw them as red. This perplexed me until I realized that, in the financial world, the color red indicates a loss of money. Thus, the Titanic sinking indicated that the world would begin to operate in the red, that is, lose wealth. I have lost track of how much wealth has been lost, but it has been in the trillions of dollars.

Second, the Titanic was built in Ireland by a company named Harland and Wolf. Harland is not a very common name in the US, but it just so happens to be my middle name. I find it rather amusing that the Lord would give me, a Harland, a dream of the Titanic sinking, a ship built by Harland, and use this to reveal to me the fall of mystery Babylon in light of the Titanic.

As if to make an indelible impression on me, a rather curious thing happened on September 22, 2008, in between two dates noted below. I received a card from my parent's physician of over 60 years. He was my physician as well as I grew up. He is now in his mid-nineties and seems to be going strong. Well, although he kept in contact with my parents, he seldom wrote to me, except at Christmas. But as I was in the midst of seeing the beast system in light of the name Wilson (explained in next point) and even the Titanic in light of the name Harland, I received this note that read: "Dear Harland and Jeannette, Congratulations on your new home, I am so proud of you and happy that your parents honored me by giving you my name. Sincerely, Dr. Harland N. H." You see, my middle name of Harland was given to me in honor of our family physician whose first name is Harland. Is it a coincidence that I received this letter when I did? I doubt it! It is the Lord's doing.

Third, I am not only a Harland but also a Wilson whose roots are planted in Northern Ireland, close to the roots of President Wilson's family who were Scot-Irish Presbyterians. My mother's parents were both Wilsons (not related), Scot-Irish Presbyterians, who emigrated from Ireland to America in the early 1900's. I am 50% Wilson from my mother. I do not know if I have any blood connection to President Wilson, but I do know that one day the Lord revealed the name and background connection to me.

On September 21, 2008, I was reading an article on the Federal Reserve Bank and when I saw President Wilson's name, it hit me like a hammer that there was more to my understanding of this matter than mere history. I was called to stand as a Wilson against the beast system, as represented by the Federal Reserve, a system put into place by a Wilson.

Interestingly, President Wilson came to regret signing the Federal Reserve Act of 1913. He later wrote: "I am a most unhappy man. I have unwittingly ruined my country. A great industrial nation is controlled by its system of credit. Our system of credit is concentrated. The growth of the nation, therefore, and all our activities are in the hands of a few men. We have come to be one of the most completely controlled and dominated governments in the civilized world, no longer a government by free opinion, no longer a government by conviction and the vote of the majority, but a government by the opinion and duress of a small group of dominant men."

September 23, 2008 was an important day for me because I was led, as a Wilson, to repent for bringing this yoke upon the US. It was a very powerful time of prayer as I repented and then stood in prayer for the fall of mystery Babylon. Once I completed this, I was led to Amos 6.8b: “Therefore I will deliver up this city and all it contains.” The city is the great city Babylon, the worldwide city. It shall be done to the glory of God, and when it does come, the world will feel a burden lift off its shoulders, even in the midst of much confusion. But fear not; the Lord’s conquerors will have the answers the world will seek for in that day.

But there is more. On November 15, 2008, President Bush was hosting a meeting of the G-20 nations to find a way to resolve the global financial crisis. On this day, a tornado touched down in Wilson, NC, killing two people and destroying six houses. Again, if we agree that the name Wilson is synonymous with the Federal Reserve System, a part of the beast system, then this most likely has spiritual significance. The question is: What do the two people and the six houses signify? Something in the financial world is going to fall or come to a place of collapse.

With this next point, you might think I have lost my mind, but during this same time period, we met two people with the name Wilson and noticed a new road sign near our home, “Jim Wilson.” Again, is it a coincidence, or is it the Lord’s way of verifying that what I am seeing is from Him?

Fourth, the seed that was planted to create the Federal Reserve System was planted in 1910 during a secret meeting of influential American politicians and bankers with connections to European bankers. If 2010 is the year to watch, then it will be 100 years since the seed of bondage, so to speak, was sown and the US was yoked to mystery Babylon. The number 100 signifies God’s election of grace and the children of promise. When is the promise to be manifested for the sons of God? It is to be manifested during the fall feast of the year appointed by the Father. Could it be the year is 2010?

Waterloo.

Interestingly, I received another word that seems connected to the dream of the Titanic. At 4.40 am on October 10, 2008, I heard the words “the battle is over” followed by “Waterloo.” Waterloo stands for the decisive defeat of Napoleon Bonaparte on June 18, 1815. Defeat came when Napoleon’s elite guard lost their will to fight and retreated from the enemy. The sight of their disorder and retreat sent panic throughout Bonaparte’s ranks that resulted in their disintegration. This is interesting to study, but I believe there is something more significant in this word. With some research, I discovered that with the fall of Napoleon, the financier Nathan M. Rothschild quadrupled his fortune that created a major monetary powerhouse, even to this day. In fact, the Rothschild’s interests were represented at the Jekyll Island meeting in 1910 that led to the creation of the Federal Reserve Bank. More significantly, the House of Rothschild was instrumental in developing the current international banking system by making government bonds easily available. This is part of the beast system.

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

Of note is the fact that Waterloo is currently the headquarters for MasterCard International Europe (i.e., credit), a major player in the beast system. As a reminder, a credit freeze has caused the most angst among world leaders. If credit stops flowing, then nothing in mystery Babylon will flow.

I believe that just as JP Morgan's Titanic sank and Napoleon's army was decisively defeated, making Rothschild very wealthy, so too the world-wide financial banking system, which, in Revelation 18, is metaphorically depicted as a woman and called mystery Babylon, will decisively fall.

What about the year 1917 and the month of May? Well, 1917 is quite an interesting year, for it was the year of the Fatima (Portugal) visions (May 13 through October 13), the so-called apparitions of the Virgin Mary that are now idolized by so many in the world; the year of the Russian and Bolshevik Revolution, which led to the Soviet Union; the year of the Balfour Declaration (November 2) that was Great Britain's promise for a Jewish state in Palestine; and the year that Sir Edmund Allenby of Great Britain took control of Jerusalem (December 9). The last two events were significant in the rise of the present-day state of Israel. Of note is the fact that the Balfour Declaration was issued to Lord Walter Rothschild (a leader of British Jews from the House of Rothschild) and that the modern-day state of Israel (Zionism) declared their independence on May 14, 1948.

We know that the state of Israel will play a role at the end of our age as the Lord judges this apostate nation that has usurped the birthright name of Israel. It is also possible that Fatima may play out in relation to the religious nature of the beast as well. We also see Russia becoming more aggressive in world affairs. We need to watch Fatima, Israel, and Russia.

However, later I was given even more understanding of the year 1917.

The number 93.

On November 15, 2008, I had a dream, but the only thing that caught my attention was the number 93. It stood out very clearly in my mind as if it were in the middle of a blackboard. As I slept, perhaps half-conscious, I kept trying to figure out what this number could mean. I could not recall it appearing in any of the Biblical mathematics or numbers books that I have read. I figured that it referred to years, so I began to add it to and subtract it from the year 2008. Adding to 2008 placed it too far into the future, but subtracting from it yields the year 1915. Then the thought (perhaps impression from the Lord) came to me to look at the clock. The time was 2.17 am. Then it dawned on me; it is 93 years added to the year 1917, which is the year 2010.

Is this the year that mystery Babylon will finally and completely fall? Will the fall occur during May 2010, or will something else happen in May of that year?

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

This would tie in with the dream of March 11, 2008 in which I saw the Titanic sinking and then the year 1917 followed by the month of May.

Could it be that this is another confirmation that 2010 is the year of the Lord's arrival to meet His conquerors and to transfigure them into His image? Could it mean that the manifestation of the sons of glory will occur during the fall feasts of 2010?

I have much to pass on about the number 93, specifically its numeric value, which I believe confirms much of what I see happening in the very near future. However, before delving into the number itself, I need to share a few other thoughts. I have come to learn that sometimes the numbers that I am given refer to Scripture verses. With this thought, I felt that I should check out Psalm 93, Isaiah 2.17, and Daniel 2.17. What I discovered was quite fascinating. They are all prophetic words regarding the end of the eon (age) and the coming kingdom of our Lord. Obviously, there is much that could be said about each of these verses and their context, but I mention them very briefly and leave it to you, the reader, to pursue further study.

¹ The LORD reigns, He is clothed with majesty; the LORD has clothed and girded Himself with strength; indeed, the world is firmly established, it will not be moved. ² Your throne is established from of old; You are from everlasting. ³ The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice, the floods lift up their pounding waves. ⁴ More than the sounds of many waters, than the mighty breakers of the sea, the LORD on high is mighty. ⁵ Your testimonies are fully confirmed; holiness befits Your house, O LORD, forevermore. (Psalm 93.1-5 NASB)

Psalms 93-100 are generally considered prophetic psalms that speak of the coming kingdom of Christ when He will reign over the nations.

¹⁷ Then Daniel went to his house and informed his friends, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, about the matter, ¹⁸ so that they might request compassion from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his friends would not be destroyed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁹ Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven; ²⁰ Daniel said, "Let the name of God be blessed forever and ever, for wisdom and power belong to Him. ²¹ It is He who changes the times and the epochs; He removes kings and establishes kings; He gives wisdom to wise men and knowledge to men of understanding. ²² "It is He who reveals the profound and hidden things; He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with Him. ²³ To You, O God of my fathers, I give thanks and praise, for You have given me wisdom and power; even now You have made known to me what we requested of You, for You have made known to us the king's matter." (Daniel 2.17-23 NASB)

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

These verses set the stage for the mystery to be revealed to Daniel that speaks of the Stone Kingdom crushing mystery Babylon that currently rules the world.

The pride of man will be humbled and the loftiness of men will be abased; and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.... (Isaiah 2.17 NASB)

Isaiah 2 is about the last days in which there will be a day of reckoning and in which the Lord will be exalted. Thus, it speaks of the end of our present wicked eon and the coming of the reign of Christ when the Law will go forth from Zion. This will continue into the day of God, which is truly the last day.

I have no doubt that the numbers as represented in the above verses speak mightily of the glory of the eon that is set before us and the travail that immediately precedes it.

Now, to understand the number 93, we need to start with the number 3, which is the lowest common denominator that divides into 93.

The number 3 signifies “divine completeness.” The Creator of all things has revealed His hand in the geometrics of the physical universe. We live in a three-dimensional space of height, width, and depth, or longitude, latitude, and elevation, or the coordinates of x, y, and z. It takes three lines or three dimensions to form any sort of figure or solid. The simplest form of a solid figure is the cube (x^3). Thus, in this regard, the number 3 signifies solid, real, and complete.

However, there is more, for God Himself is expressed through threes: There is the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God is omniscient, omnipresent, and omnipotent. The seraphim cry: “Holy, Holy, Holy” (Isaiah 6.3). Further, Christ is the Way, the Truth, and the Life (John 14.6). He was crucified at the third hour. There were three hours of darkness while He was on the cross. He rose from the dead on the third day.

Consequently, when we see the number 3, we need to realize that the hand of God is at work, for it signifies something of God’s handiwork or of God Himself, and it speaks of completeness of what He has created.

Next, we discover that the number 93 is divisible by 3, which yields the whole number 31. The number 31 (or a factor thereof) signifies “Deity” and “offspring.” The gematria for the Hebrew word El, which refers to God, is 31; lamed (30) and aleph (1). Obviously, El speaks of Deity. Regarding offspring, the 31st time that the names of Noah, Abram, Abraham, and Jacob appear in the Bible, we discover that each case refers to the bringing forth of offspring. For example, with the 31st mention of Noah’s name, we discover the command to be fruitful and multiply, and fill the whole earth (Genesis 9.1). Also, see Genesis 14.14; 20.17-18; 28.13-16.

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

In Hebrew, the number 93 can also mean “the sons of (the merciful) God.” The number 93 is an intensification of the numbers 3 and 31, which makes it more significant; it carries the meaning from offspring to sons of God, which speaks of completeness.

But there is more. Again, using numeric values, the number 93 refers to two more words of significance.

First, in the Greek, the word agape or love corresponds to the number 93. As we have seen, El corresponds to 31, a factor of 93. This should remind us that God (31) is love (93). So, we could say that the number 93 speaks of the very essence of God or that love (93) is the intensification of who God (31) is. Thus, the number 31 intensified 3 times (93) speaks of God’s intense love for mankind, for God so loves the world.

Second, there are 93 million miles from the sun to the earth. The word brightness in the Greek corresponds to the number 93. In other words, the brightness of the sun travels 93 million miles to bathe the earth in light. Now, one of the spellings of the word God has a numeric value of 864, and the diameter of the sun is 864,000 miles. So, the sun speaks of God who sends forth His light into the earth, which is 93 million miles away, and in doing so He manifests His love (numeric value 93) for mankind. Of course, He did this in a most profound way as He sent the Son of His love, the Light of the world, to this earth to die for mankind, and He will come again, only this time He will reign over mankind through His conquerors.

There is another interesting point that pertains to light, which travels 186,000 miles per second. The number 6 represents the earth and mankind. God sent the Light of the world to the earth to give light to mankind. Dividing the number 186,000 by the number 6 yields the number 31,000. Once again, the number 31, referring to El, appears; only now it is greatly intensified by 1,000, which speaks of the glory of God and completeness.

However, this is not the end of the line for the number 93. The number 37 is a prime number, and many of the names or titles given to God the Father and His Son are multiples of the number 37. For example, the numeric value for the name Jesus is 888, which is 24 times 37, and for the title Christ is 1480, which is 40 times 37. Multiplying 37 by 93 yields the number 3,441, which corresponds to the numeric value of the words contained in Romans 9.23, the riches of His glory, and Hebrews 5.10, a High Priest after the order of Melchizedek.

The order of Melchizedek speaks not only of the Lord as the King-Priest of the new covenant but also of the sons of glory that will reign with Him in His coming kingdom on earth, the kingdom of king-priests. They are likened to the sons of Zadok (Zedek) [Ezekiel 44.15] that will minister to God in the heavenly tabernacle and to mankind on the earth. They will know the riches of His glory and manifest His glory to the nations.

Did you know that the numeric values of God's word could yield so much truth? This is no coincidence!

So, what are we to conclude about the number 93? The number 93 refers to the divine completion of the offspring of God. It speaks of the ones born from above that will mature into the likeness of Christ. It speaks of the manifestation of the sons of God, the sons of glory, the conquerors that will reign with Christ in the coming eon.

These are the ones that will be the first to experience the Tabernacles as they take on celestial, spiritual, glorified, immortal bodies, for they will be like the Son of God's love. They are the sons of God's love, the saints in light.

Now, returning to the dream of the Titanic sinking; could it be that in the year 2010, 93 years from 1917, the economic system (Titanic) of mystery Babylon will fall, as described in Revelation 18, which will lead to the manifestation of the sons of God and the coming of the kingdom of our Lord to earth as the sons begin to reign and teach the nations righteousness and reveal the very character and essence of Christ through their lives? Some might debate which comes first, the fall of Babylon or the manifestation of the sons, but both must occur for the kingdom to come, so it really makes little difference in the final analysis.

But there is more. The 93 years in question can be divided into 3 periods of 31 years; 1917-1948, 1948-1979, and 1979-2010. It appears that these 31-year periods reveal some of God's plan leading up to the reign of the heavens coming to the nations.

1917-1948: The first period speaks of the rise of Zionism, as manifested through the establishment of the state of Israel in fulfillment of Jesus' parable about the fig tree putting forth leaves (Matthew 24.32-33). They are a nation in fulfillment of prophecy, which is what the leaves signify; however, they are not a fruit-bearing nation, nor will they ever be (Matthew 21.19). Zionism began in the late 1880's but took root in 1917 with the Balfour Declaration that ultimately led to the formation of the state of Israel on May 14, 1948. This Israel had to be brought forth in order to bring Edom/Esau into judgment at the end of the eon and to fulfill God's just law.

This thought is injected at this point to counter the thought that the present-day Israel is the apple of God's eye. On the contrary, the current state of Israel and the many that call themselves Jews today are not the true Israel and will not be the head of the nations in Christ's kingdom. They have rejected Christ and will continue to do so. They have usurped the name Israel and falsely assumed a right to sonship based on bloodline. This is called Zionism.

The true Israel of God is not based on bloodline but on a circumcised heart first (the true Jew) and on a conquering life, second; a life that knows God rules. The true Israelites are ones who will inherit the earth and be placed as sons of glory in the coming eon; they are the lost sheep of the house of Israel that will be revealed at the end of the age during the fall feasts. In fact, the next two periods were and are instrumental in bringing forth God's house that will be alive and remain when the kingdom of Christ takes root among the nations.

1948-1979: The second period was a little puzzling to me at first until I realized that it represented a time of planting with a view to a harvest that will come during the last period. It was a preparatory season for the growth of the kingdom of God. This period followed WWII, which resulted in the death of 72 million people from the nations that fought in the war. Simply, the world had to be repopulated so that the kingdom of God would have more offspring or children of God.

Following the war, there was a spike in the birth rate in some countries, especially in the US, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand. The US alone added 76 million to its population during this time. The ones born during at least the first part of this period (1946-1964) are referred to as the baby boomer generation, because this generation is the result of a booming birth rate. There were about 2.6 billion people worldwide in 1950, and by 2007, the number swelled to 6.6 billion.

As I interpret this period, it was God's way of bringing forth new seed (people) to be planted in the field (the world) that are destined to become a wheat crop for the kingdom.

1979-2010: This leads to the last period in which out from the many new births of the previous period have come and will continue to come ones growing up as children of God. In other words, many have been and will continue to be saved. It has been noted by many others that, beginning in the 1980s, the spirit of God began to touch the hearts of many people to bring them under the reign of Christ. In this respect, this period has been a harvest time unto salvation (Passover; blood applied).

Consequently, once the crop of new people began to be planted in the field, so to speak, the Lord began in earnest to bring a multitude into His body, which began in 1979 and will extend to the completion of the eon in 2010. From this crop will come forth the conquerors that will be alive and remain when the Lord comes to be glorified in His saints.

It seems very clear to me that these three 31-year periods speak of God's end-time plan that leads to the great harvest at the end of the age, which leads to the next point.

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

The end has come.

Since January 2, 2007, I have heard on at least four different occasions the word “The end has come.”

The first time I heard this was in connection with a dream about people buying and selling running shoes, specifically Nikes, which means “to conquer.” With this dream, which came around 2.52 am, I heard: “It is finished; the race is over. I am coming soon.”

I have always thought that we are to run the race all the way up until we either die or the Lord returns. However, during a time of transition between the two eons (ages), this, in fact, might not be the case as the Lord prepares His company of conquerors or overcomers that will reign with Him. However, it seems that both Paul and Peter knew that they had finished the race. We do not know how long after this word came to them that they were martyred. At any rate, I share this word in light of all that has been revealed to me since then.

On August 8, 2007, I heard the specific word “The end has come,” and then on September 27, 2007, at 2.45 am, I heard it again, only with slightly different wording: “It has come, the end.”

Then, on March 27, 2008, at 2.45 am, I was awakened with the word again: “The end has come.” This came exactly 6 months after and at the exact same time in the morning as the last word I heard on September 27, 2007. Again, the number 6 is the number of man, as well as man’s wisdom and labor.

This raises a question: Why the exact hour of 2.45 am? The number 2 refers to “division” or to a “witness” and “testimony”; the number 45 refers to “preservation,” that is, “the power of God in preserving His saints.” Division most assuredly will come at the end of our eon, and the testimony of God will go forth through His saints. Also, a good indication of the meaning of the number 45 is found in Joshua 14.10, where Caleb declared that the Lord had kept him alive for 45 years so that he could enter the land of promise. It seems appropriate in light of “The end has come,” for God will preserve His saints through whatever transpires as the end unfolds so that they will be prepared to enter into their land of promise, which refers to being transfigured into new celestial, glorified bodies in fulfillment of the Feast of Tabernacles. Interestingly, September 27, 2007 was the beginning of the Feast of Tabernacles.

Further, multiplying 45 by 2 yields 90, which, if this is viewed as years, yields the year 1917 based on September 2007. Perhaps this is a stretch, but then again it does line up with all that has been stated so far.

When I first heard the specific phrase “The end has come,” I questioned: Is this word found in Scripture, and if so, in what context? The answer is yes, and it is recorded in Ezekiel in reference to the land of Israel. Part of this section of Scripture is presented with the relevant parts underlined.

¹ Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me saying, ² “And you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel, ‘An end! The end is coming on the four corners of the land. ³ Now the end is upon you, and I will send My anger against you; I will judge you according to your ways and bring all your abominations upon you. ⁴ For My eye will have no pity on you, nor will I spare you, but I will bring your ways upon you, and your abominations will be among you; then you will know that I am the LORD!’ ⁵ “Thus says the Lord GOD, ‘A disaster, unique disaster, behold it is coming! ⁶ An end is coming; the end has come! It has awakened against you; behold, it has come! ⁷ Your doom has come to you, O inhabitant of the land. The time has come, the day is near—tumult rather than joyful shouting on the mountains. ⁸ Now I will shortly pour out My wrath on you and spend My anger against you; judge you according to your ways and bring on you all your abominations. ¹⁰ Behold, the day! Behold, it is coming! Your doom has gone forth; the rod has budded, arrogance has blossomed. ¹¹ Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, none of their people, none of their wealth, nor anything eminent among them. ¹² The time has come, the day has arrived. Let not the buyer rejoice nor the seller mourn; for wrath is against all their multitude. ¹³ Indeed, the seller will not regain what he sold as long as they both live; for the vision regarding all their multitude will not be averted, nor will any of them maintain his life by his iniquity. ¹⁴ They have blown the trumpet and made everything ready, but no one is going to the battle, for My wrath is against all their multitude.’” (Ezekiel 7.1-14 NASB)

I have no doubt that some will immediately focus on the wrath and see it in light of what many hold to be the great tribulation that they see coming upon the world at the end of this age. Of course, many Hollywood movies, as well as the Left Behind series, have done a great deal to cement these literal images in the minds of many believers. They see the book of Revelation as being literally fulfilled rather than seeing John’s Patmos vision as he saw it, in spirit, which is seeing it as symbolic of spiritual truths. At one time, I accepted the Left Behind theology, but no longer do. It seems that John’s vision is symbolic. In particular, we are not waiting for mystery Babylon to arise; we are living in the midst of it at this very moment, and we are witnessing its very downfall as John saw. I suggest, which means that I am open to correction from the Lord, that the end that is coming is most likely the end of mystery Babylon, which refers to the system of commerce that has united the nations of the world and which has placed the nations in bondage to a system of greed, credit, and usury.

All we need to do is look at the financial turmoil that has been brewing in the United States. The Federal Reserve and the US government, and now the nations of the industrialized world, have been pumping billions of dollars into the system to stave off a complete collapse of the worldwide financial system. But what if the Lord Himself places His hand of judgment or wrath on this system? Whatever the Federal Reserve or any other entity does will not be able to stop the collapse. In fact, some experts on the matter are predicting that a global financial collapse, the likes of which has never been seen, not even during the Great Depression, is inevitable. So I ask the question: Does “The end has come” refer to the end of mystery Babylon? Compare Ezekiel’s prophesy with John’s prophesy.

¹ After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven.... ² And he cried out with a mighty voice, saying, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place of demons and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird. ³ For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the passion of her immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed acts of immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich by the wealth of her sensuality. ... ¹⁰ Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For in one hour your judgment has come. ... ¹⁴ “The fruit you long for has gone from you, and all things that were luxurious and splendid have passed away from you and men will no longer find them. ¹⁵ The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, will stand at a distance because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, ¹⁶ saying, ‘Woe, woe, the great city, she who was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls; for in one hour such great wealth has been laid waste!’ (see Revelation 18.1-17a NASB)

The twin towers of the World Trade Center, the symbol of the economic might of the world, fell to rubble in one hour seven years ago. It seems apparent that with the seventh year completed (again, the number 7 signifies completion or spiritual perfection), mystery Babylon has begun to fall. When it does fall, it is good news, for it means that the end of this present wicked eon has come and the glory of the Lord is about to be manifested as the trumpet of the first resurrection sounds and the sons of God are revealed to the nations.

If it falls in 2010, it will be nine years from 9-11-2001. The number 9 signifies judgment.

I have testified in other material of a word the Lord spoke to me on February 27, 1995 that speaks clearly to the charge I believe I have been given in these last days. He spoke: “When you see the structures crumble, testify of My kingdom.” The crumbling of the structures began with the World Trade Center towers, and seven years later, we are witnessing more structures crumbling. Why testify of His kingdom? Because everything that can be shaken will be shaken, for we receive a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and this kingdom is coming soon! It is the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ.

Now, let us consider a word about Methuselah.

Methuselah is dead.

On September 26, 2007, I simply heard the name of Methuselah. However, nearly 12 months later, on September 13, 2008, at precisely 11.11 pm, I was literally jolted awake with the word: “Methuselah is dead.” As shown, numbers have meaning, and the number 11 refers to disorder and disintegration, and 11.11 is a double witness. What does all this mean?

The name Methuselah has great significance, for it means “man of death” or “man of dart.” When Methuselah, the longest-living man in human history, died, the whole world changed as judgment came upon mankind through the flood. As far as we know, according to Scripture, all mankind perished with the exception of eight people. In spite of the massive loss of life in that day, the flood was a positive event, for it introduced a new day on earth.

In like fashion, I believe “Methuselah is dead” indicates that the end of our present eon is very near. Great change is coming to this earth. The seventh day is coming!

The first time I received this word, I received seven words over the course of a day, but it is significant that this word was the sixth in the series. The number 6 is the number of man, and after six days comes the seventh day, which speaks of the day of the Lord. I do not know all the details of how this will unfold, but I do know that it will be both good and bad. It will be judgment on the world system that has held mankind in bondage. But this is good, for the shaking that must come and, by the way, has come is good news; it means that the kingdom of our Lord is very near and the conquerors, the sons of glory, are about to be revealed as a kingdom and priests to our God; and they will reign upon the earth for 1,000 years with Christ (Revelation 5.10; 20.6).

By the way, the seventh word that came to me occurred at 2.45 am; it was: “It has come, the end. Be faithful to the end.”

My encouragement to all that have spiritual sight in this day is to hold on a bit longer. The end of the age is in sight. Do not grow weary. Be a conqueror!

The next great event.

Interestingly, I received another word on another day again at 11.11 pm, precisely at the same time I heard the word about Methuselah. Only this time, it was a word about the next great event. Before giving details about this word, I need to reiterate that the fall of mystery Babylon has already begun. The process of bringing it down has begun and will progress until the time fixed by the Father's authority.

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

However, another event of much greater significance is coming for all who love the appearing of the Lord.

On September 26, 2008 at 1.44 am, I heard: “The next great event is the resurrection.” I instantly thought of the 144,000 remnant of the tribes of Israel. Then, 35 days later, on October 30, 2008, as I put my head down on the pillow for the night, I heard: “Look up, your redemption draws near. Look at the clock.” So, I looked at the clock and it was 11.11 pm.

These words contain some significant numbers: 144, 35, and 11.11. The Lord that I know does not waste words and He does not give numbers without reason. So, let me offer an interpretation with what light I have at this moment.

First, both words are linked by the words resurrection and redemption, which together refer to putting off mortal bodies and putting on immortal bodies. As Paul wrote, we need to be clothed with our dwelling from heaven, which is a glorified, spiritual, celestial body in the image of Christ (1 Corinthians 15.42-55; 2 Corinthians 5.1-4; Philippians 3.20-21; Colossians 1.27; 1 John 3.2). Resurrection and transfiguration are required to reach immortality, for those who are asleep in Jesus. Those who are alive and remain when He comes must be transfigured into new bodies. As Paul wrote to the believers in Rome, we await our adoption as sons, the redemption of our body. Thus, resurrection and redemption both refer to the body.

Second, the first prophetic event announcing the second coming of Christ is the resurrection of the dead in Christ or, as Paul called it, the out-resurrection (Philippians 3.11 WAET), which will occur with the Feast of Trumpets in the year appointed by the Father. Consequently, the word I received speaks of the coming of our Lord and His kingdom.

Third, the number 35 signifies hope, which speaks of our expectation of the redemption of our body, which those who are asleep in Jesus will receive through resurrection. Paul, who defended the resurrection, wrote:

²³ And not only this, but also we ourselves, having the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our body. ²⁴ For in hope we have been saved, but hope that is seen is not hope; for who hopes for what he already sees? (Romans 8.23-24 NASB)

Our hope or expectation is to be placed as sons in the kingdom, and, for this to be possible, we must be resurrected from among the dead, if we have fallen asleep in Christ, and be transfigured into the image of Christ, unless we are alive and remain when He comes, in which case we must be transfigured.

Sonship in the coming kingdom and redemption of our body are inseparable. Notice how Paul continued his thought by making sonship and redemption our hope, and this hope is not possible in the oncoming eon without the first or out-resurrection. Let me state this in the most emphatic way I know how: The kingdom of our Lord cannot and will not begin to overtake the nations of the world until God has placed His sons of glory (Hebrews 2.10) in His kingdom as its rulers, administrators, and judges, and this is totally dependent on the first or out-resurrection and the redemption of the body of those who will be counted worthy to attain to the coming eon (age) (Luke 20.34-36) to rule and reign with Christ (Revelation 5.10; 20.4-6).

I am amazed and, frankly, tired of hearing that Christians are going to begin ruling the world and infiltrating every aspect of life in order to manifest the kingdom of God among the nations, and they are going to do this in this present wicked eon apart from the resurrection, redemption, and the placing of sons in the kingdom. To me, it is the sin of presumption to assume that, as believers dwelling in bodies of death with only an earnest of the spirit within us, we have the capacity or the blessing of God to take over the world and rule it apart from glorification that only comes when Christ comes and His kingdom begins to take root in the nations. We need the Feast of Trumpets and the Feast of Tabernacles and the eighth and great day of the feast to inaugurate the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ.

Fourth, since the Lord told me to look at the clock in conjunction with His word, seeing four ones lined up in a row caught my attention. The number 1 signifies unity; the sum of 1111 is 4 and signifies the fullness of creation; as seen previously, the number 11, which appears twice in 11.11, signifies disorder and disintegration. I could see some merit to each meaning, but they did not quite fit with redemption. Then, I felt led to Isaiah 11.11 and saw a connection to the number 144, which refers to a remnant (Revelation 7) and resurrected ones. Truly, the ones raised from among the dead in the first resurrection will be a remnant, for only conquerors or overcomers will be raised unto immortal life. The rest of the dead will remain in the state of death until the resurrection of the just and the unjust at the end of the millennial kingdom age, when they will appear before the great white throne.

Then it will happen on that day that the Lord will again recover the second time with His hand the remnant of His people, who will remain ... (Isaiah 11.11 NASB)

The context of Isaiah's prophecy is the coming kingdom of Christ when the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the seas. In that day, He will recover for the second time a remnant as He gathers a company of people by way of the first resurrection, reuniting both Judah, which refers to kingship (Genesis 49.10) and Ephraim, which refers to sonship (Genesis 48.17-20; 49.22). Who is this remnant? They are the sons of the resurrection, the many sons of glory, the heirs of the kingdom, the conquerors of Christ, and the true spiritual Israel. The ones counted worthy to be the remnant are not so deemed because of their flesh, bloodline, pedigree, nationality, or country, but because of the spirit of Christ within them and their life that conquered while in a body of death. They will remain unto the kingdom of Christ to reign with Him for a thousand years.

See The Upward Call issues #02-08149, December 19, 2008, The True Jew Is, and #02-08150, December 23, 2008, The True Israel of God.

It is worth repeating: For the kingdom of our Lord to come to this earth, the resurrection must come first. This is the next great event. Here is the good news: It is coming! Look up! The King and His kingdom are coming!

There is more.

The key of the kingdom of the heavens.

On February 28, 2008, I had another two-part dream.

In the first part of the dream I saw a pile of broken keys. I was searching through the keys until I found one very unusual key that was not broken. It was unusual because the part that would go into a keyhole was shaped like a wave or the tail of a whale. In my journal, I described it as the wavy key or the whale key. But there was more to the dream, for I saw a door with a woman standing on the other side; she was in what could be described as a stairwell with a staircase beyond. She obviously wanted out but her key would not open the door. However, the key that I had in my possession opened the door and let her out, and I went through the door to the staircase.

In the second part of the dream I saw an extremely filthy cord tied to a black man wearing a baseball cap, with the cord attached to me. In the dream, I was very repulsed by this gross cord but not necessarily by the man. I tried to get away from him, but he would not let me go, so I took a pair of scissors, cut the cord, and then washed the part that had been attached to me.

Frankly, this dream puzzled me greatly and I mused over it off and on for the next seven months with no understanding, until finally the spirit of God began to interpret it for me.

On September 15, 2008, at 5.50 am, I was in prayer and I heard: “Stand! Do not fear! I am at the door and you have the key. Man’s ways are a failure. His keys are all broken. His ways will never open the door. The key that you saw is the heavenly key. It opens the door to the kingdom of the heavens. It is the celestial key. The woman you saw with the key was mystery Babylon. Her key is a broken key along with all the keys of mankind. The key I gave you is like the key I gave to Peter. The key you have opens the only door that matters – the key of My kingdom. Use the key. It is yours to use. Open the door. Open the gates for the King of Glory to come in. You will not find this key on earth. It is one of a kind. It has come down from heaven for you.”

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

I was still puzzled by the woman, so I sought the Lord for further understanding. Specifically, I was puzzled by her being on the other side of the door, which would have placed her on the heavenly side, if the staircase represented the heavenlies. To this inquiry, the Lord spoke: “No. She is bound by heaven. She is locked in. If you recall, there was a staircase. She was at the bottom. She is caught; she cannot go up and she cannot go down, that is, through the door. When you open the door, she falls because she is trying to get out, not go up. She will fail just like all the broken keys.”

I then inquired why there was only one key; after all, Peter was given the keys. I then heard: “There is only one door. I am the Door to the kingdom. There is only one thing to be bound and one thing to be loosed. Mystery Babylon is to be bound, the yoke to be removed. The kingdom of the heavens, My kingdom, is to be loosed on earth. The time has come. I have told you so.”

As you can tell, this was a specific and clear word, one that I did not expect or anticipate. Interestingly, the headline at the end of that day read “Financial Meltdown.” Also, this word came 14 months after my wife and I had completed the Jericho walk around Colony. Again, the number 14 signifies deliverance and salvation.

Needless to say, I began to apply this key as I saw our Lord Jesus as the Door. It also reminds me of Jesus' conclusion to the parable of the fig tree. When we see these things, He is near, at the door (see Matthew 24.33). So He is both the Door, and He will come through a door (the celestial portal).

The limp, God rules.

Six days later, I had an opportunity to exercise the key. My wife unexpectedly began to limp as a result of an unusual pain in her hip. She had never had such a thing, so it caught us by surprise. All day long, she limped around the house. It was very strange. She reminded me of Jacob as he wrestled with the angel and then received the name of Israel, which means “God rules.” We prayed over the limp throughout the day, but it persisted into the evening, and she went to bed with it. Around 12.42 am, I woke up and realized she was still hurting. Then it came to me to apply the key in a much different way. As I lay in bed, it was as if the spirit of God reminded me of Adam and Eve. Eve literally came forth from Adam's body, so she was in fact bone of his bones and flesh of his flesh; they were one body. Adam was the head and Eve was part of his body. I was then reminded of Paul's word in his Ephesians epistle about the body (Ephesians 5.22-23).

I have written about how Adam loved his body; consequently, he had no choice but to sin. If interested in this topic, see The Upward Call issues #01-0714 (November 16, 2007); #01-0724 (November 13, 2007); #02-0898 (October 7, 2008); #02-0899 (October 10, 2008); #02-08100 (October 14, 2008).

With this in mind, I simply prayed as her head and as if her physical body were literally my body. I took authority over my body and applied the key of the heavens. After all, we are one. I went back to sleep but later awoke when I realized that she was awake. I asked her how she felt, and she replied that the pain was gone. Praise God! It has not returned!

You might think that I am a bit obsessed with numbers, but I saw significance in the time of 12.42. The number 12 refers to God's (divine) government, and the number 42 refers to man's opposition to God (His government). Jacob was in opposition to God until he wrestled with the angel of the Lord. I wrote in my journal on September 22, 2008: "It is no coincidence that AJ was limping yesterday. It was like Jacob (supplanter) whose hip socket was dislodged and he limped. But, he became Israel, which, according to E.W. Bullinger, means "God commands, rules, or orders." It wasn't that Jacob prevailed with God as most interpret this story; it was that God rules. It is the Sovereignty of God that frames the word Israel. We can wrestle with God, but He rules in the end no matter what. So, this fits with 12.42. God commands, and therefore all opposition will be for naught in the end."

Through this experience, I saw the power of the key of the kingdom of the heavens; how God will ultimately prevail over the kingdom of men, especially mystery Babylon, and how applying the key forms us into Israel.

Before moving on to the second part of the dream, I must stress that the key I was given is not unique to me, for I believe many have been given the key and have been applying it, probably far more diligently than I have. I am no one special, just one who continues to cry out to the Lord and seek Him and His kingdom.

The political system.

Now, turning to the dream of the black man with the baseball cap, on September 16, 2008, the day after the meaning of the key was revealed to me, as I was in prayer, the spirit of God began to give me understanding. In many respects, what follows goes along with the key of the kingdom and God's government and man's opposition to it. It is about a corrupt political system in opposition to God's righteous government.

What was revealed to me came as a shock. The dream was not about one man but two men in one. The black man represented Barack Obama and the baseball cap represented John McCain. If you had not noticed, while on the campaign trail, John McCain often wore a baseball cap. Interestingly, the face of the man in the dream was not thin but round, which is more a picture of John McCain as well. I must add that neither man had won the nomination of his party at that time. John McCain clinched it the next month, but Barack Obama did not clinch it until June.

The imagery and interpretation that came to me is not something that I could make up. I had not been thinking about the two candidates in reference to the dream, nor had I been pondering any theories about the meaning of the dream. It came to me as quickly as a flash of lightning.

I do not believe this dream is about any particular individual nor is it meant to impugn the character of either man. It is not about the men; it is about what they represent, since they were the primary figures on the political scene for most of 2008. Of course, Barack Obama is now our president, but when this dream and interpretation came to me, the outcome was unknown. It may portend something even more ominous in the days ahead. We will have to see, but I have a groaning feeling that all is not well in Camelot.

Well, here is the interpretation of the dream: The two men represented the political system in the US today, I represented the American people, and the filthy cord represented the corruption that has permeated the political system as it has become more about power, money, greed, lies, war, and hatred than about righteousness, justice, mercy, truth, peace, and love. Cutting and washing the cord signified the release or being set free of the American people from attachment to this corruption and coming into something clean or uncorrupt. It is significant that I was led to wash the part of the cord that was attached to me.

The cord of falsehood.

I believe what the Lord has shown me regarding this matter is contained in the following verses.

²¹ For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings. ²² His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords [chebel] of his sins. ²³ He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray. (Proverbs 5.21-23 KJV)

¹⁵ So the common man will be humbled and the man of importance abased, the eyes of the proud also will be abased. ¹⁶ But the LORD of hosts will be exalted in judgment, and the holy God will show Himself holy in righteousness. ¹⁷ Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture, and strangers will eat in the waste places of the wealthy. ¹⁸ Woe to those who drag iniquity with the cords [chebel] of falsehood, and sin as if with cart ropes; ¹⁹ who say, "Let Him make speed, let Him hasten His work, that we may see it; and let the purpose of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come to pass, that we may know it!" ²⁰ Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness; who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter! ²¹ Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes and clever in their own sight! ²² Woe to those who are heroes in drinking wine and valiant men in mixing strong drink, ²³ who justify the wicked for a bribe, and take away the rights of the ones who are in the right! (Isaiah 5.15-23 NASB)

I draw your attention to the phrases the cords of his sins and the cords of falsehood. The Hebrew word for cord is chebel, which means “a twisted rope; or a noose (as of cords); figuratively a company as if tied together.” The Hebrew word for falsehood is shav, which means “evil (as destructive), literally (ruin) or morally; figuratively idolatry (as false, subjectively), uselessness (as deceptive, objectively; also adverbially in vain).” Source: Strong’s Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible.

The political system has a noose, a cord of sin, a cord of evil around its neck, and from this noose is a cord attached to the American people. The reason the cord is attached to the head rather than the body is because the head speaks of authority. The head speaks of the seat of government over the people, the body.

Consider the woes that are included in these verses, especially the woes directed to those who call evil good and good evil, those who are wise in their own eyes and clever in their own sight, and those who justify the wicked for a bribe and take away the rights of the ones who are in the right. All of these woes speak of the system to which we have been yoked. Notice that I am not singling out a specific person(s) or political party. I am speaking of a system of falsehood and sin. Also, in light of what I have shared in other writings about mystery Babylon and the kings and merchants of the earth being drunk with her immorality and sensuality (Revelation 18), it is instructive that the valiant men who mix strong drink are the ones who justify the wicked and take away rights. Think about it!

We have been tied to this system and dragged around like a cart. A cart is something revolving, such as a wheeled vehicle. We have been led around by the cords of falsehood, which is the very heart of politics in our day. But the American electorate has demanded this system to support its own immorality. I have heard it stated that the 2008 electorate may have been the most uninformed, ignorant, blind, and immoral electorate in our history. I am not sure if all of this is true, but I do have a witness to the blind and immoral part.

However, we need to be clear that it is the Lord’s doing that we are yoked to this system. The Lord has brought us into judgment through a system that is now bearing the fruit of its corruption. I believe that in the days ahead, we will see how corrupt it truly is, but a new day is coming.

It is time to repent for looking to this system and not unto Jesus. It is time to cry out for deliverance from this evil. It is time for us to be ready for the King!

Cutting the cord.

On September 23, 2008, I was led to take a cord, cover it with filth, cut it, and then wash the part I held and discard the other part, to signify the breaking of this corruption that is attached to the American people. In some measure, I believe that what I was led to do was important to the kingdom of God and the hour in which we live. It was a spiritual act based on Matthew 6.10: Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Again, it was applying the key of the kingdom of the heavens. It has been done in heaven, and now, I believe, it will be manifested on earth at the time fixed by the Father's authority.

I did not choose this particular day to act out this spiritual battle other than I had set the day aside to seek the Lord and pray. However, in retrospect, I see that the day had significance since it was made up of the numbers 9 and 23. The number 9 refers to judgment, and the number 23 refers to death. Thus, the corrupt politics is coming into judgment that will lead to its demise as something good replaces it. I believe that the good is the kingdom of our Lord; actually, it is the best!

Receiving the interpretation on September 16 also has meaning to me, for the number 16 refers to love. God's judgment is always done in love with the purpose of reconciliation and restoration. He is not out to destroy or annihilate people, even when His judgments seem severe on our end. We need to be reminded that He is working all things according to His purpose. "My purpose will be established and I will accomplish all My good pleasure" (Isaiah 46.10b). I believe that one day this cord will be cut in a way that all will see and know, then something good will come. What I am fairly confident of is that the political system of the US will come under judgment, if it is not already under it, and its true character will be exposed. As a side note, I do not believe this judgment is of the US Constitution and its form of government. In many respects, part of the problem today is that the political and judicial systems have ignored and corrupted the original intent of the Constitution. Thus, there is a difference.

But what does this mean in reference to our new president, Barack Obama? Many (at least 53% of the electorate) see Obama as the agent of change and hope, and are already proclaiming how great he is. Some even speak seriously of him in almost messianic terms.

I realize that we must be gracious toward our new president. After all, we know that we are to pray for our leaders, and I believe that he is our new leader by the sovereignty of God. He has been granted authority to govern by God in accord with the plan of God, but this does not give us an indication of what role he will play in fulfilling God's plan. Will he be a good leader or a bad leader? In either case, we can be assured that however he leads, it is all in accord with the will of God as He brings our present wicked eon to a close. Whatever happens with his presidency must be part of God's plan to bring His kingdom to the nations.

I must confess that I have had moments of ambivalence toward our new president, something I also sense in some pastors and preachers and commentators of Scripture, as well as some in the secular media. Simply, some of us are not sure who Obama is and where he is taking this country. On the one hand, he seems to have great potential to bring healing to the nation and may be a refreshing breeze to politics as well; and yet, on the other hand, there seems to be something under the surface that might not be quite right, like we are being led down a path that we might not like once we figure out what it looks like. Frankly, I am more inclined to the latter. There seems to be something amiss.

For example, we need to be concerned about Barack Obama's opinion of our Constitution that he says is a flawed document, a view he expressed in an interview that I heard. This should raise a red flag as to what flaws he sees and what he might do to change it, possibly by circumventing it, which is nothing new in politics, for it has been more the norm for politicians to circumvent it.

Another issue that has been raised, which has been ignored by the media and by the US Supreme Court, is the question of Obama's place of birth and whether he meets one of the qualifications for president, that is, of being a natural-born citizen. During his campaign, it had been reported that he has not been forthright in releasing documents about his past, which has led some to believe he is hiding something. Since the Supreme Court has decided not to intervene, and the media and the electorate don't want to know or don't care, we can expect that the matter will not be resolved; unless, perhaps, his base becomes disillusioned with him and makes it an issue. If he feels the Constitution is flawed, perhaps he feels that it makes no difference where one is born or what is his background.

If a ruler pays attention to falsehood, all his ministers become wicked. (Proverbs 29.12 NASB)

Time will tell if falsehood and wickedness will permeate his administration. The controversy over the governor of Illinois trying to fill Obama's vacant senate seat should be a reminder to all of us of the corruption of politics, right in Obama's backyard, so to speak. Of course, we know that Illinois is not alone in its corrupt politics, for corruption has been unearthed from Alaska to Florida to Louisiana to Washington, DC, and this is only in the last few months.

Let us not lose sight of the thought that a nation's leaders, particularly in a democratic society like ours, often reflect the character or, we could say, the moral fiber of the electorate. Perhaps, this election was about how God will bring us into judgment for our immorality. If this is so, even the best intention of the new president will ultimately fail.

One further thought; we are a country that claims to be at least 70% Christian. If this is in fact true, then it is obvious that many Christians were willing to overlook the fact that Obama supports partial-birth abortion (murder). How could this be? I realize that some, perhaps many, do not believe we should get caught up in single issues; instead, we need to look at the big picture. After all, isn't it worth it if he gets us out of our current economic mess? But where do we draw the line? Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump (1 Corinthians 5.6)? How far are we willing to go in order to satisfy our self-indulgence? Doesn't God's moral law count anymore? Isn't it better to suffer for the sake of righteousness

(Matthew 5.10) than to make friends with the unrighteous world? We need to wake up! Moral character counts!

Dear beloved in Christ, don't look to man or to government; keep your eyes upon the Lord and love Him with your whole heart. He is our only safe haven in the days ahead.

Our hope is not to be in a world leader, in a government, in a 401K, in an investment portfolio, or anything else. Our hope is in Christ, Christ who is our hope or expectation.

Whether a person believes in Jesus or not, does not alter the fact that the world's future is in Christ.

It is time to turn from it all and look off unto the love of our life, our Lord Jesus. It is time to trust Him, to know Him as our trust. If we do not learn this lesson in this day, we will be like the five foolish virgins who were unprepared when the cry went forth that the bridegroom was coming.

The end of this world is not coming; the end of the world system, as we know it, is coming, for He is coming! Hallelujah!

Although I raise these issues as a huge concern in our day, I need to be clear that it should not surprise us, for it does not surprise God. In fact, as I wrote in The Upward Call, issue #02-08136 (October 31, 2008), God has released a supernatural working of deception throughout the earth; it has started out like a flood that will grow into a huge wave that will overtake the world. This seems to coincide with the word mentioned earlier (page 5) given to me on July 6, 2002: "When all the waters are overflowing, I will come." This refers to Joshua 3.16.

In addition, I have written on the spirit of antichrist (see The Upward Call, issue #02-08133, October 27, 2008), the worldview that is held by so many in authority today; a view that places man on the throne. But let us proclaim with loud voices that there is only one who can bring about real change, and He is the true Christ, the Son of God, God's King, whose name is Jesus.

I believe, based on what I have shared up to this point, that the Lord is beginning to judge the political realm or system of the United States. I do not know what this will look like, but I am sure that it is coming, if it is not already upon us at this moment. I do believe that the Lord exposed the corruption of politics in Illinois, the very home state of Barack Obama, as a sign of things to come.

This leads to my final point.

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

The coming crisis.

On September 23, 2008, I heard: “A crisis is coming. Unprecedented! Beyond man’s imagination! It will bring mankind to its knees. You will rejoice in My day. Be prepared to testify of My kingdom. It is coming.”

As a reminder, the number 9 (September) speaks of judgment, and the number 23 speaks of death. We will just have to wait and see what this crisis will be. Lord, have mercy!

Although a crisis might not be a very pleasant experience of life, the coming of the kingdom of our Lord is something to get excited about, and this should cause us to endure to the end so that we might receive it as a conqueror, worthy to reign with Christ.

Interestingly, on November 2, 2007, I had a dream of war and fire as I observed people mangled and dead bodies, but then I saw a body being reformed and a man emerge with a big smile. I saw a picture of resurrection life. No matter what happens, we need to be assured that God’s plan is to bring about resurrection life, not destruction or annihilation. A day will come when many will wear big smiles, all to the glory of God the Father and His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

On October 29, 2007, I heard another word: Watch Dubai! The Abu Dhabi Investment Authority, or ADIA, a sovereign wealth fund owned by Dubai, the world’s fourth-largest oil exporter, was the first international group to offer bailout assistance to Citigroup, the largest bank in the world at the time. A year later, the US government was bailing out Citigroup again. Perhaps, a day will come when Dubai will pull out its investments in the US, which will trigger a worldwide domino of collapse to bring down mystery Babylon. Or, perhaps Dubai is a symbol of the numerous bailouts that have been exercised that amount to trillions of dollars, by one count $7 trillion.

Dubai pulling the plug, so to speak, may not be so far fetched. It has been reported very recently that due to the amazing drop in oil prices, Dubai is curtailing some of its massive building projects, including the construction of the tallest building in the world. Could this be a symbol of the tower of Babel? Is it a sign of the fall of mystery Babylon? If so, this tower will never be finished.

I must add that on September 29, 2001, I heard a word that has kept me watching international news. Actually, I heard two words: Punjab! Fire in the sky! Whether these two words are connected, I am not sure; but I suspect they are and that, based on a dream I had along with this word, Punjab, India is the area to watch. In case you do not know where Punjab is, it is a region that covers both India and Pakistan. Considering the conflict between these two nuclear countries over the years and the November 26, 2008 attacks on Mumbai, India, we might see some major conflict arise in this area in the near future. Interestingly, shortly after this event, Pakistan sent troops into Punjab.

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

Word of caution.

I have two words of caution.

First, it is quite apparent that the mood of the world seems to fluctuate with the world stock markets. As they rise, you can almost feel the mood of the world move from depression to elation. As I have stated many times, do not be persuaded by any mood that reflects the markets. The US Stock Market could have some great days. We actually saw this when president-elect Obama began to name his so-called dream team. A rise of over 1200 points is amazing, but is it a true reflection of reality? Frankly, the stock markets have become like gambling casinos with people making huge bets each day in hopes of making huge profits of paper wealth. It is not wealth based on any value other than what the market decides; it is not based on actual labor. This is crazy! So, keep your eyes on the Lord and not on what people of the world are reporting. We need to discern in our spirits, not through our emotions.

Second, we should pray for our national leaders, especially for Barack Obama and his team. Perhaps in the midst of political judgment, the Lord will reveal His heart to the new president and use him in a way that will prepare the way for the kingdom. Who knows what God has in mind for the days ahead? He could give Obama much wisdom and even dramatically change some of his views. Perhaps he will be led to call a jubilee and cancel out all debt and issue true bank notes with value instead of Federal Reserve debt notes.

After all, the king's heart is like channels of water in the hand of the Lord; He turns it wherever He wishes (Proverbs 21.1). The Lord is on the throne, and He rules in the kingdom of men. He has not given up His right over the nations and its leaders. We can be sure that all is being worked out according to God's plan.

I offer these suggestions only as possibilities, but I must be honest and state that I would be very surprised if some of these things were to happen on this side of glory. It is more likely that such a thing could occur once the kingdom of Christ begins to come to the nations. It is possible that Barack Obama will be the president in the day mystery Babylon falls and be led to apply kingdom principles in governing the nation.

Well, obviously this is all conjecture, so I leave it to your imagination.

However, I offer one final word on this matter. When the world flocks to one man and exalts him as if he were going to save the world, we who know the true Savior of the world should take note. The world is hungry for a leader that will usher them into a new global order. We have the answer to their longing. I doubt that many truly understand for what they are asking. The order the world seeks is found in mystery Babylon. But God has a better plan and a new global order the likes of which the world has never seen. It is the kingdom of His Son. But let us be clear that Barack Obama is not the one who will usher in God's new global order. Christ is the new order!

Elijah is coming.

On October 5, 2007, I heard: "Elijah is coming." On occasion, what I hear from the Lord seems to be confirmed some time later through others who have been given a similar word or insight. During the latter part of 2008, I began reading material from others stating that an Elijah company is being raised up and will come forth; some see this happening during 2009. We do know that Elijah must come to prepare the way for the Lord by proclaiming the coming of the kingdom; but, most likely, he is not one man but a whole company with the spirit of Elijah.

Interestingly, on December 5, 2008, I heard: "Gabriel is coming." This might seem like a strange word until one realizes that the angel Gabriel was the one to announce the birth of both John the baptist and Jesus (see Luke 1.19, 26). We know that the spirit of Elijah must come before the Lord Himself comes, much like at His first advent. Could Gabriel soon be announcing the birth of an Elijah company that will prepare the way for the Lord? Something to think about!

Conclusion.

I do not sit around trying to make up these things; they come to me as I have sought to see things as God sees them and to feel His heartbeat. And, for the most part, what I hear comes independently of what others are reporting. If anything, what I hear seems to be confirmed by others after the fact.

I conclude with these thoughts.

First and foremost, God is love! Do not allow anyone to rob you of this truth. The Father loves you! God loves you, and God loves the whole world.

Second, God must shake all things that can be shaken, and He must judge. This is a truth of Scripture.

Third, when the Father's appointed time comes for our present wicked eon to end, it will end, and no one will be able to stop Him from closing it out.

Fourth, and most importantly, this is a GOOD THING! Let me repeat: It is a good thing! Why? Because when the appointed time comes, it is the time when the great voices in heaven declare: "The kingdoms of the world did become those of our Lord and of His Christ, and he shall reign to the ages of the ages!" (Revelation 11.15 YLT).

Fifth, I believe that the year 2010 might be a very interesting, if not a glorious, year.

WHEN THE DAY COMES [2010]

Can you think of anything more glorious than the kingdom of Christ taking root in this earth and beginning to rule and reign over the nations with Christ's conquerors in the lead? Do you realize that, in that day, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness (Isaiah 26.7-10)? The Lord loves righteousness and justice (Psalm 33-4-5), for the foundation of His throne is righteousness and justice (Psalm 89.14-16).

¹¹ Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, and all it contains; let the field exult, and all that is in it. ¹² Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy before the LORD, for He is coming, for He is coming to judge the earth. ¹³ He will judge the world in righteousness and the peoples in His faithfulness. (Psalm 96.11-13 NASB)

I love these verses. The Lord is coming to judge, but notice that His judgment is in righteousness, and He will do it in His faithfulness. After all, His name is Faithful and True.

We may yet have some very difficult days ahead, requiring that we endure a bit longer. If we endure, we will also reign with Him (2 Timothy 2.12 NASB). The one who endures to the end, he will be saved (Matthew 24.13 NASB). But there is good news. I have no doubt that great change is coming soon to this earth that will culminate when the loud voices in heaven announce: The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ (Revelation 11.15 NASB). I love the sound of this verse; it is like music to my ears! This is why I state it so often.

When this declaration goes forth, the Lord Himself will raise up His leaders, leaders of the kingdom of God, who will have the mind of Christ and the laws of God written on their hearts and in their minds. They will be the new leaders who will lead the nations in the way of righteousness, justice, peace, mercy, and, most of all, love. These leaders are the Lord's conquerors, the sons of God, the sons of the resurrection, the firstfruit anointed, and they will reign with Christ for the eons.

I leave you with the following.

On June 23, 2007, the spirit of God seemed to impress many words on my heart; it was a powerful day. But the day started with a dream at 2.44 am. It was a very peaceful dream. Something major had happened in the world. A few people had begun to gather. I went into a room where two men were discussing how to teach the children. I thought this was strange considering that things were obviously different. There was no panic, just calm and peace. Then a woman entered the room. I sensed that we needed to hear from the Lord what to do and that He was going to speak, possibly through me. Then, I found myself outside standing with another man. It was a beautiful day with a bright blue (Carolina blue) sky. We were trying to figure out the time. The other man said that we could not be sure of the time; it had changed. Although the weather seemed nice and possibly summertime, he said it might be winter. I then awoke from the dream and was very peaceful and calm.

Dear beloved in Christ, I believe that this dream was a very small glimpse into the next age when the times will truly change. The kingdom of our Lord will be a new day and it will be peaceful and calm as His reign takes root among the nations and people learn that God's righteous way truly is the good and right way. In the next eon, the inhabitants of the world will be taught by the conquerors. This explains why in the dream there was discussion about teaching the children. The people of the world will be like children in the day of Christ; they will need to be taught the ways of the kingdom, especially righteousness and justice.

The times are about to change. On September 6, 2007, I heard: "The world as you know it is coming to an end!" Amen! We need a new world order; not based on man's rule but on God's rule. It is coming. Interestingly, I have heard many in the secular world state that in a relatively short period of time (two years), we will not recognize the US. We can only hope so!

The King is coming! Let us rejoice! Stay tuned, more is coming!

²⁰ Daniel said, "Let the name of God be blessed forever and ever, for wisdom and power belong to Him. ²¹ It is He who changes the times and the epochs; He removes kings and establishes kings; He gives wisdom to wise men and knowledge to men of understanding. ²² It is He who reveals the profound and hidden things; He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with Him. ²³ To You, O God of my fathers, I give thanks and praise, for You have given me wisdom and power; even now You have made known to me what we requested of You, for You have made known to us the king's matter." (Daniel 2.20-23 NASB)
